| CLOSER LOOK: She's a G3 winner sprinting over turf and it's interesting to see the improvement along the Beyer Speed Figure scale in a winning performance while making her first start for this barn in her latest outing; looking at this as being a tough spot for her t o stretch out in distance again, but that latest effort helps give her at least mild appeal. |                                            |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |                                                   |                                           |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |                                                                      |                            |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |                     |                               |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

Multiple Stakes Winner is two-for-two since moving into a new barn and being returned from a layoff, but she's yet to meet success in the graded stakes ranks, and haven't liked seeing how tough she's been to settle down early on in her races; certainly n ot counting her out of it, but leaning toward others.

Lightly raced filly is bursting with upside potential, and she has every bit the look of a prime contender while going out for top connections; this is her graded stakes debut, but there is a lot to like, especially with Prat landing here; feel that her most recent start is even better than it looks on paper as her hand was forced by a rival to her outside making an early move and she was totally unfazed by it.

Not wild about what she showed in her first start in America, but she didn't run poorly, and like to see the confidence Mott shows in her by signing her up for this while making her first start as a 4-year-old; note that she recorded a stakes victory aga inst 10 rivals in France prior to coming to America.

Stakes winning filly is capable of producing a performance that is strong enough to get her into the mix against these, and it doesn't hurt to see that she's run very well in two of her three starts over this turf course; she owns the ability to adapt to any early pace scenario and going to look for her to be in the hunt throughout.

CLOSER LOOK: Booming win in first start back and the nearest thing to other speed has since returned to romp next out in Indiana while boosting his Beyer Speed Figure by 19 points; still plenty of upside potential in this corner with runner yet to race with the benefit of a recent prep; extended distance now, and he drew inside so may be under the gun from the bell to avoid being crowded in any way; faced a little pressure when here in Sept. but we've yet to see what would occur if he's denied the early lead; after 2 strolls in the park he doesn't even boast the top recent Beyer in here, and clearly the opposition gets tougher this time around; perhaps the sort best applied to multi-race gimmicks and to the top of exacta hedge plays.

He's 2 starts removed from maiden romp and 3yo has shown style versatility which should help him in this spot; challenge of being down inside may be a bit more roomy if the rail runner breaks well and clears outta there; runner-up on 2/14 returned to run big on 4/4 at Kee when a close 2nd, boosting his Beyer by 15 points in the process; colt banked a big winner's share in latest but now steps into graded company for the first time; certainly has a right to improve in 2nd tilt vs. winners though a couple of these are likely a different breed of cat.

Well this is quite the ambitious spot for a runner yet to even pierce the superfecta on dirt; those were just modest maiden foes he topped on the lawn out west while just one of five returnees from the VA Derby found the trifecta next out; trio of distance races so far and none of those make you want to back this guy going long; can even see leaving this number off your ticket when all you yearn for is to be alive to your horse when the Derby comes around.

Cuts back to one turn and has the blinkers come off for this try; son of Practical Joke held his own in graded company out west and a pair who finished just behind him each returned to win next out with Beyer improvement of 14 and 21 points; trio in fro nt of him last out all returned in the SA Derby with a pair of those running one-two with Beyer boosts of 6 and 14 points; this affair came up a bit top-heavy but this lightly-raced sort has every right to improve and run a big race to land in the exotic s mix; barn a robust 8-for-21 over 5 years when removing blinkers from runners returning within 60 days of prior start.

Of considerable note was his romping win at this track and trip last November: reuniting with Gaffalione today and this marks his first start over a course with which he's already familiar; effort in the Lecomte left plenty to be desired but we won't know the routine effort on synthetic last time; maybe graded stakes company is his limit? or maybe he's ready to move forward with 4 prior starts under foot; still think it would take quite the herculean effort for this colt to top the Baffert runner next door AND the rail horse.

Tiz true that the group he beat in latest won't win any awards anytime soon, but that was a mere steppingstone and a formality in being a spot for a Baffert 2nd-timer just to get a race; the time on the board didn't lie (2 other 6.5 races went in 1:16.70 and 1:16.77 on that card, earning 76 and 77 figs.); plenty of pace chances here, the probable best of which is drawn inside; recent works suggest this guy is ready for another step forward and should find himself relaxed and stalking from the middle of the course; Baffert charges are 23-for-last-55 going sprint-to-route on dirt after coming off a win; seems the horse to beat.

Top pair head to head all the way in latest with the heavy favorite winning and then disappointing as the choice in the Gr. II Wood Memorial next out; Maker trainee has worked fairly steadily since last start and is another with some improvement potential in a challenging spot; $250K purchase has yet to win outside of the Ohio-bred ranks and is sure to be a price relative to today's headliners; he was a winner at 1/20 when raced off the pace for the only time and it seems improbable that he'd threaten the best of these up front; lots of local works, many considerably better than the latest spin.

Was among several in a cluster up front with victor Further Ado nestled just behind them in the Gr. I Blue Grass; could see this one knowing a better trip in here but he has yet to win outside of LA-bred company; son of Volatile needs a pretty serious le ap Beyer-wise to threaten the best here; Irad will give him his best possible position and opportunity but it figures to take something significantly greater than that if they're to threaten for top honors in this tough spot.

Lightly-raced sort has already shown useful versatility and the runner right behind him in VA returned to run a decent 3rd in the Gr. II Wood Memorial; so far this guy has only been successful on TP synthetic and those behind him on 2/7 have managed to do very little since despite there having been a pair of next-out winners back there; this is only his 4th start and indeed he has made very few mistakes to date; son of Triple Crown winner would still seem a considerable surprise if he were able to down this group.

He knew the challenging task of dueling from the inside when trying real dirt for the first time in the Gr. I Blue Grass; most of the field raced in a small cluster before Further Ado ran away and hid; 2-back runner-up came back to win the Gr. III JR Ste aks while the 3rd finisher was an 80-1 maiden; maybe this guy could know better success with a more patient strategy and indeed he probably merits at least another chance on real dirt before his ability can be fairly assessed; do think latest was conside rably better than looked, but he's hard to take vs. this set.

The only subsequent win by anybody in the Sapling field was in a Mdn $15K claimer at Parx in February while those behind him in debut share just a single maiden win over 4.5 furs. at CT; the $60K winner's share at Mth paid for the $35K claim and runner h as been working steadily like clockwork since returning to the track in mid-Feb.; trainer Hess has scored with 2 of last 3 returning after layoffs of 180 days or more; in theory such a runner could improve enough to pose a threat in here though all would need to go splendidly for that to come to fruition against the best of these.

Maintains his steady diet of stakes company in 2026 but don't know what we could possibly make of him; if you isolate only his dirt races, well, then he lists only 5 losses; the Smarty Jones field in January wasn't a terrible lot and some of those other affairs were more productive than most would have expected; not sure that the return to one turn has anything positive in store for this one and the field he topped in Ellis maiden score share only 2 subsequent wins between them; no doubt a longshot in a tough spot. -George Cottrell

CLOSER LOOK: Fields leading money earner galloped in a $1 million stakes race on grass as a 2-year-old and he's yet to run a bad race over turf from five turf starts; he's ideally drawn in post one at this trip and he might find himself sitting a comfortable ground s aving trip just off of the early leaders; it will take a career best effort to win this, but feel that possibility exists.

Tough to side with a maiden in a G1 event, but three of his four turf starts have been solid performances, and he is G2 stakes placed on grass; his 3-year-old racing debut in his latest outing was an encouraging performance, and the winner from that race returned to win next out at SA on 4/19 going 1 1/8m over turf vs. 50k OPC's with an 86 Beyer.

He's run well on both dirt and turf, and he earned a nice stakes placing on grass in his latest outing while making his first start as a 3-year-old; this has to be considered a difficult next step for him, but he still has some room for improvement; runner-up finisher from latest won next out at GP on 4/17 going 1m over turf vs. 75k OPC's with a 78 Beyer.

Tough to knock anything that this G3 winner has done from four turf starts while winning three, and his only loss over turf came in a near-miss effort behind Gstaad in the BC Juvenile Turf; not going to argue with anyone looking favorably in this directi on, especially with Prat taking over.

Like to see that this stakes winner is two-for-two racing over turf, and willing to ignore the synthetic starts last time, but he does find himself being handed a tough assignment while making his first start in a G1; Calumet-owned colt has at least mild appeal, but leaning toward others.

He's shown ability from day one and have to like the multiple stakes wins he's recorded since being placed over grass while racing at 6 1/2f and a mile; he's making his first start in over two months and feel that this lightly raced 3-year-old is eligible to be ready for his best performance to date, and note the strong looking set of works leading up to this.

Can't ignore the fact that this G3 stakes-placed performer has racked up the runner-up finishes along the way, but he's run well in all six of his turf starts, and he's proven himself against a number of today's rivals; have to be concerned about the pos sibility of a quick early tempo for him, but not going to count him out of the mix.

His overall turf form has been solid and like the effort he put in from off the pace in his latest start when rallying on well with today's rival Remember Mamba; however, it is worth noting the presence of Prat elsewhere in here, and viewing him as being more of a threat to land something underneath in the exotics.

Sire has won with 10% of his North American turf starters, and G1stakes placed dam won three of four starts for 222k, and all of her starts were over turf; that was a nice stakes placing he earned racing over synthetic in his latest outing, and the thir d place finisher from that race returned to win next out at KEE on 4/11 going 1 1/16m in a G3 with an 85 Beyer.

G3 winner has yet to meet defeat, and he has to be viewed as being a top contender after recording a game victory in his graded stakes debut most recently; not that he needs a quick early pace, but like the idea of him settling in early on before produci ng a strong late bid.

He's another in here who is a perfect three-for-three racing over turf, and when considering all of those starts were as a two-year-old, there is plenty to be excited about as he gets set to make his three-year-old racing debut; that said, this is a pret ty tough bunch for him to meet up with off of a layoff, and he might have a tough time managing a comfortable trip from an outside post with a good deal of early speed lined up inside of him. -Brian Pochman

CLOSER LOOK: Brad Cox trainee has been favored in every start to date and remained undefeated through 3yo season; apparently he bit off more than he could chew in the Gr. I Pegasus World Cup, but that race has been flattered since, with White Abarrio having topped both Sovereignty and Journalism next out while Skippy Longstocking returned to take the Gr. III Essex at OP, shaving 3 points off of his Beyer Speed Figure in the process; lightly-raced 4yo has done little wrong and is 3-for-3 around one turn and notched a 107 Beyer as a sophomore; rail draw complicates his challenge in here but son of Not This Time is far from impossible in this spot.

Baffert charge has done very little wrong to date and has trained steadily since October with calendar otherwise dotted only by a pair of strong performances under silks; the 1/31 affair produced 3 other next-out winners and nobody had returned from the 3/29 race as of press time; 2nd dam won the Brdrs' Cup Distaff by a mile 20 years ago while mom produced 3X Gr. I winner, Guarana; 101 Beyer at first asking speaks as to his talent and April drills suggest this one is building up to a booming effort here; wasn't at all embarrassed when trying Gr. I foes in 2nd career start and is more seasoned and mature now.

Was a winner here on Derby Day a year ago going around one turn on dirt and lists just the single start since July of 3yo season; that means there is considerable upside with additional maturity; be forgiving of the 7/25 effort as he was stuck dueling fr om inside vs. the romping winner in a race that sidelined this one for 8 months; return try was less than ideal in a race from which nobody has returned as of press time; sharp local works under foot and there is reason to expect considerably better in t he afternoon, albeit when in deep water in a tough spot; maybe sprinkle his number on lower rungs of the superfecta, just in case.

Latest Beyer Speed Figure seems more valid than not and last year's 2nd start, when a 3yo, seems to validate both the move forward and the big number when allowing for expected physical maturity; Tampa shipper has confidence riding high and the potential was always there given the 7-figure price tag; fellow Tampa shipper has proven triple-digit Beyer ability so there's another reason why recent efforts in this corner aren't exactly out of line; that said, he's going to face a stern test in this spot so demand a bit of a price if you're considering backing on the nose.

He shipped here with his Derby-bound stablemate first from Tokyo to Anchorage, then on to Chicago, before vanning down to CD; colt earned Group III stripes with latest and has been fairly potent off of layoffs in recent times too; dam won her first NINE starts, all on U.S. soil, while a sibling banked $427K, most of it in the U.S.; KY-bred figures to be right at home in his native state and he can expect a stern test upon return; those needing cause for concern should look no further than the lack of a win beyond 6 furlongs; today's rider is 2-for-2 aboard this guy and runner's present win streak demands attention.

Colt was earning figures at 3 that, when projected forward with additional maturity, have every right to land him in the mix with these; he fired big off a long rest to win 11 months ago so we know he can fire fresh; been working steadily since mid-Feb. while missing just a single morning drill during that time; barn 5-for-last-11 when employing Prat on turf runners away at least 120 days; the price should be reasonable given the need for Beyer improvement; definitely the kind you want to cover in the many multi-race bets passing through this contest so as to be alive to your Derby horse.

Strong showing in Dubai recently but this guy has yet to win beyond a mile; J. Ortiz is interested at first U.S. asking but the wide draw probably won't do them any favors; there is some amount of consistency to this guy although he's certainly not a win machine; definitely the sort of a puzzler who will give most people fits as they decide whether to include him on the deeper pick-N tickets or take their chance against; he's 2-for-14 to date in graded stakes company with the other win a Gr. III at Deauville; your call. -George Cottrell

Come back a better horse after break which gave him time to mature and develop and with just 4 races in him there's ample room for further growth with experience; of course, there better be further growth as Beyerwise he needs a hefty jump forward to hav e a say; at least shown tactical speed and versatility (won the G2 Wood from well back); you have to go back to 2000 for the last Wood winner to win the Derby (Fusaichi Pegasus) though a number have run well in Triple Crown races (Congaree, Empire Maker, Mo Donegal).

G1 SA Derby run was disappointing as he'd run well in his prior return start; still, it's encouraging connections feel good enough about him to ship across the country; and there's some cause for optimism as he showed quality last year routing as a 2yo; best work has come when put right into the race, not necessarily being 'sent' but being forward; still, his 3yo Beyer's are pretty much on par with his 2yo figs so could he be that kid who was dominant in sports in junior high and then not as formidable in high school when the others boys has caught up or even gone past?

They surely had expectations from the start with that price tag, and they weren't shy to try as they shipped to KEE last October and to OP this year; showed he's got game with a fine G1 BC Juvenile effort and smart win in the G2 Los Alamitos Futurity nex t time out; trouble is, his form prior and since doesn't exactly get the pulse racing; they reapply blinkers but of the last 11 runners to add blinkers for the Derby the best finish is 4th, though at least his best work came with blinkers; Baffert tied w ith Ben Jones for the most Derby wins (6).

Came running from far back to be a good 2nd in the G2 Wood; that shows some quality and the way finished says furlong No. 10 won't be an issue; what might be an issue is that his lack of speed could again leaves him with far too much to do turning for ho me and that style means he'll need every break in terms of pace and traffic; not only that, he likely needs to be faster overall as well so there are some things to overcome; McPeck won this in 2024 with Mystik Dan.

Done things that land him as a heavy hitter - won a lot (4 of 5), run fast (2 triple-digit Beyers) and shown guts (won close decisions in his last 2); no surprise he's good; heck, they paid a bundle for him; daddy has produced 3 Ky. Derby winners and dam sire won this race so there's ample stamina all the way around and the how he's finished up his races says 10fs will hit him right between the eyes; oh, and if you're worried about local experience he romped in his only prior local try; enough tactical s peed to keep the leaders in his sights; Cox won with Mandaloun (2021).

Japan nearly got its first Ky. Derby in 2024 when Forever Young was a terrific near-miss 3rd; that said, Forever Young has turned out to be a generational talent; is this guy nearly as good?; well, he's run just the 3 times so we don't know his ceiling, though it's most encouraging he romped in all 3 starts so he passed every test with gusto; had to ship halfway around the world, no small matter, deal with new surroundings and he's yet to race in this direction (counter-clockwise); still, you figure Ja pan might get theirs one of these days, but the hurdles are not insignificant.

Might be the leading hope of the SoCal contingent; done little wrong winning 3 of 4 and that G1 SA Derby tally was not only smart visually he got a Beyer that puts him on par with some of his more fancied rivals; run just the 4 times, too, so there's ample room for growth; yet to wear blinkers though he's been working in them; has enough speed to be forwardly placed; daddy was a champion sprinter, but daddy won this race and his damsire won the BC Classic at this trip here so there's ample stamina; did have to ship across the country, no small task.

Kept on gamely to be a sharp 2nd in the G1 Florida Derby, just a lip behind major player Commandment; so, if that guy is a player here (and he is) doesn't it follow this guy could be as well?; darn tootin' it does; shown tactical speed and versatility to give his rider options and you have to like how his Beyers are trending north; pedigree-wise should have no issue with the 10fs; Delgado won this in 2023 with Mage.

Churchill Downs (5/2/2026)

Like his countryman Danon Bourbon he faces some significant hurdles; hasn't been nearly as dominant as 'Bourbon either; does have a couple things in his favor as he's raced counter-clockwise before and has shipped halfway around the world and still produced his 'A' game; of course, he's had to ship halfway around the world yet again but there's talent here and the way he finished while winning that G2 UAE Derby says today's distance won't be an issue.

Not only comes off a visually impressive win at CNL he returns to a place he obviously likes as he's 2 for 2 here including a G3 SW; lone poor outing came when he shipped to GP for the G3 Holy Bull in the winter but he was no factor at any point; maybe it was just one of those days, or maybe he didn't relish the GP strip or maybe he needed the race after a 3 months off; well, he next went to CNL and got back on track so there's talent here and as noted he likes this place; still, no Beyers cracking the 90 mark means he has to run a race he hasn't run yet to be effective.

Done little wrong in 6 starts, though one of today's favorites Renegade beat him pretty handily in the G1 Arkansas Derby; in his defense, he'd reportedly been fighting a bit of a foot bruise so maybe that exaggerated the loss; trainer Casse has reported he's past that ailment and that may add up to a move forward; of course, it had better considering Renegade left him well in his wake at OP and a career-top Beyer of 91 means he has to run a race he hasn't run yet to be a top contender; but hey, neither had some others who ended up wearing the roses, right?

Dueled in the G1 SA Derby April 4 and was unable to counter So Happy's charge in the final furlong; that was just his 3rd start, though, so there's ample room for growth and development; that speed likely translates to him being forward from the start and you know with Baffert if they have speed he lets them use it; cost a fortune so there were expectations from the start; while he can be forward, you do wonder if 10fs is what he wants; daddy has produced 3 Derby winners and Baffert tied with Ben Jones for most Derby wins (6).

Some decent state-bred work didn't exactly seem to have him salivating for a shot at open company and tougher but he's picked up game with the move to deeper waters; gamely won the Sunland Derby and then darn near won the G2 Louisiana Derby at FG March 21, finishing just a nose shy of Emerging Market who certainly has his backers here; could be those last 2 are signs he's figured out things; handles a route and speed likely has him forward; all that being said, he'll need another boost forward to ring the bell, though that isn't out of reach; O'Neill has won this twice.

Did lots of good work in Dubai so there's talent here; that said, he was fairly well beaten by today's foe Wonder Dean when 2nd in the G2 UAE Derby; in his defense, that was his first start in a couple months; off that they felt good enough about him to ship here for this; seems to have some tactical speed so he can be forward; still, UAE Derby runners, save for Japanese star Forever Young (ran 3rd), have not fared so well coming for the roses.

The overriding question is whether he's a much better horse at KEE than elsewhere; oh, he's been fine away from Lexington (won a G2 over this track last fall, for instance) but no doubt his 2 best efforts by far came at KEE, including that G1 Blue Grass romp last time where he got the highest Beyer in the field; has enough tactical speed to be not too far away from the start and a big price tag tells you somebody saw something they liked; Cox won with Mandaloun (2021).

Not far behind Emerging Market when 3rd in the G2 Louisiana Derby March 21; that proximity counts for something as Emerging Market has a number of fans; have to like the Beyers continue to creep north and with that pedigree you know this trip is no problem; that said, he still needs to be faster and this marks his first action away from his FG sandbox, though some snappy works at KEE help alleviate the concern he needs to carry his track around with him.

Done plenty of good work, though that's all come on turf and synthetic so it's new footing today; Animal Kingdom overcame such a hurdle to win this but it's still a tall task; at least bred top and bottom for dirt and has been working well on this dirt recently, too; lack of speed may mean, though, he'll have work to do turning for home and will need all the breaks in terms of pace and traffic; Cox won with Mandaloun (2021).

AE dueled in the G1 Blue Grass and paid the price, giving way; prior wins came from just off the pace so he's no need-the-lead type; trouble is, his first 3 starts came on synthetic while that Blue Grass fade came on dirt so you wonder about his dirt ability, not to mention the depth of the water competition-wise.

AE kept to his task for 3rd in the G2 Wood so that's nice; still, we're talking a maiden facing winners and only 3 maidens have won this (Buchanan, 1884; Sir Barton, 1919; Brokers Tip, 1933); 12 maidens have run since 1937, best finish being 8th; while that Wood run wasn't bad his 2 prior starts, both stakes, weren't too hot; at least the Wood represented a move forward but he'll need another much bigger leap to get involved.

AE got his diploma at SA around 2 turns and was a sharp 2nd in the G2 San Felipe there a couple months ago so there's some ability here; trouble is, it's been something of feast or famine for him; at least has speed and Jaramillo comes with him to keep t he mount, but you wonder if he's simply biting off too much here and remember he was 67-1 in the San Felipe; O'Neill has won this twice.

AE dueled in the G3 Lexington before tiring late, but it's not as if he caved in; that was a 2nd straight decent route so he seems comfortable going longer, no surprise with that pedigree; speed to be in it from the start and if he goes it can help him f lee a very tough far-outside post; but if he goes and uses all that fuel early, with a few others likely in close attendance, what does that do to him come furlong 8 and beyond? -Michael Hammersly
